An extra-long drawer kitted out with felt trays means baubles can be whisked inside, leaving the top refreshingly uncluttered. The luxe leather and powder-coated steel perch can be custom-ordered in a range of cushion and base colors.

Inspired by Sister Parish's love of a kidney-shaped table, we dreamed up an elaborate nine-drawer rendition, had it built to our specifications and dressed it in a sophisticated circus stripe. A '30s-style curule stool, gone posh with silver-leaf paw feet, completes the homage to 20th-century design.

Crowned with a pewter triptych mirror on a shagreen base, a traditional desk masquerades as a dressing table; pull-out side trays can hold more cumbersome accoutrements, like hair dryers. The burnt-oak chair is a quiet grace note.
